Gillette STADIUM

www.GilletteStadium.com     @GilletteStadium

Gillette Stadium, home of the New England Patriots, is the region's premier sports and entertainment venue. Since opening in 2002, every ticketed Patriots home game has sold out and fans have enjoyed more regular season and postseason victories than any other team in the NFL. In 22 seasons, the venue has hosted more than 12.5 million football fans attending Patriots games and has been the site of seven AFC Championship games – six of which were Patriots victories. Since 2002, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home with an overall record of 154-46, including a 19-4 playoff record in Foxborough.

In 2023, Gillette Stadium unveiled the most dramatic venue improvements since its opening in 2002. The $250 million project completely transformed Gillette Stadium's appearance, greatly enhancing the event day experience for fans. The renovations included the Gillette Stadium Lighthouse, a signature 22-story lighthouse with a 360-degree observation deck open to guests year-round. The project also featured the largest outdoor curved-radius videoboard at a sports venue in the country, the G-P Atrium, a 50,000 square foot function space overlooking the game field, and the reimagined fan plaza. The improvements also included the Ticketmaster entry canopy, an enhanced Row of Honor, the field-level Bud Light Celebration Beer Hall, new and improved concessions like the Pepsi Grab & Go offering, connectivity on the upper concourse for movement east to west, increased restroom capacity and permanent bars and concession locations featuring new product offerings.

Gillette Stadium's completely reimagined north end marked a notable milestone in stadium improvements as part of the continued efforts to keep the venue on the cutting edge and continually enhance the fan experience. Just like Gillette Stadium's initial construction, these renovations are entirely privately financed by the Kraft family.

In addition to the amenities added in 2023, Gillette Stadium features gathering areas including the DraftKings Sports Zone and the Commons on the Main Concourse, and the Encore Boston Harbor Terrace and the JetBlue Landings on the Upper Concourse, offering communal spaces where fans can gather to socialize before, during and after games. Additionally, the Cross Insurance Club, which runs the length of the stadium on both sidelines, offers members access to 120,000 square feet of indoor space and premium outdoor seats. Finally, the stadium's Luxury Suite Levels are home to 92 luxury suites that are among the largest in the NFL, ranging from 800 to 2,700 square feet. Each suite is fully furnished with everything needed for a top-tier event experience and features in-suite catering and beverage service, restrooms and a dedicated suite attendant.

Gillette Stadium is also the full-time home of Major League Soccer's New England Revolution and annually hosts international soccer matches, NCAA athletics, professional lacrosse, Feld Motor Sports and high school football state championships. The stadium also hosted the 2023 Army-Navy Game and 2016 NHL Winter Classic, and will host seven 2026 FIFA Men's World Cup matches, including a quarterfinal match. Additionally, Gillette Stadium is one of the world's top grossing concert venues according to Billboard, and will host the 100th concert in venue history this summer. The biggest acts in music have headlined the home of the Patriots and Revolution over the years, including Taylor Swift, Kenny Chesney, The Rolling Stones, Bruce Springsteen, Billy Joel, Elton John, Coldplay, Ed Sheeran and Beyoncé, just to name a few.

GILLETTE STADIUM FUN FACTS

Continued Investment

The Kraft family invested $300 million in Gillette Stadium enhancements in the venue's first 20 years. The 2023 north end enhancements, coupled with the 2021 south end renovations, marked an additional $250 million investment.

The Height of Design

The stadium's prominent signature lighthouse in the north end zone rises 22 stories above the playing field, towering over the stadium itself, which is 16 stories tall. The 218-foot lighthouse is the tallest lighthouse in the United States.

New View

The lighthouse features a 360-degree observation deck with unique views into Gillette Stadium and of the surrounding neighborhoods.

Long Way to the Top

The Lantern Room at the top of the lighthouse can be accessed via a 34-second elevator ride. There are also 372 interior stairs.

On the Big Screen

The north end zone videoboard measures 22,000 square feet, making it the largest outdoor curved-radius videoboard at a sports venue in the country. Combined with the south end zone videoboard, the half-acre north end zone board gives Gillette Stadium three-quarters of an acre of video scoreboards, providing ample space to enjoy game action, replays, statistics and more.

Bridging the Gap

The north end hospitality and function spaces bridge the gap between the Cross Insurance Clubs, the Luxury Suite Levels and the upper concourse, giving all levels of the stadium 360-degree connectivity. These spaces are highlighted by the G-P Atrium, the largest Patriots game day hospitality space to open since 2002.

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to make the experience interactive. Its incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery has undergone renovations and houses all six Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those championships. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

The experience begins as visitors enter an elevator on the ground floor and hear a voice from Patriots history welcoming them to the hall of fame. The journey continues through 20,000 square feet and two stories until visitors reach one of The Hall of Fame's signature exhibits and its premier photo opportunity: the Patriots' six Lombardi trophies.

The hall of fame features interactive exhibits designed to educate and entertain. Visitors receive instruction on how plays in the Patriots' playbook are designed. They also step inside a game-used replay booth and make the call on an instant replay review with instruction from former NFL Vice President of Officiating Mike Pereira. Additionally, fans can make Malcolm Butler's famous championship-clinching interception in The Hall of Fame's incredible Super Bowl Experience exhibit.

The hall of fame's 26 high-definition touch screen kiosks allow visitors to interact with the exhibits in unique ways. Exclusive video content is also displayed on 29 high-definition TV monitors, four projection screens and the 45-foot-wide panoramic movie screen in the Raytheon Technologies Theater, where a 17-minute signature film plays every 20 minutes.

Each Patriots Hall of Famer is immortalized on 30-foot high, five-foot wide video pylons utilizing high-resolution LED displays. Fans can choose which hall of famer player to highlight on one of four touch screen kiosks, causing the pylons to come alive with video and images of each player while additional information is displayed on the screen below.

science questions to advance a player down the field for a touchdown. By the Numbers asks users to input data and then watch to see if the data enables a completed pass or a successful field goal kick.

In 2015, Yankee magazine named the Patriots Hall of Fame "Best Sports Museum". In 2009, the hall of fame received a Gold MUSE Award from the American Association of Museums and The Hall's signature film, "Patriots Way," won a CINE Golden Eagle Award. The Hall of Fame was also named to Boston Globe Magazine's Best of the New and was a Yankee magazine Editor's Choice recommendation. "One of the greatest things about sports is the bond players and fans share. You feel like you've lived through the same experiences and share the same memories. That was one of our motivations in building The Hall. We wanted to create a place where our fans and alumni could visit and relive those moments together. We wanted to preserve the legacy of this franchise and give our greatest players the most prominent display of any hall of fame in the world."

Robert Kraft, founder, chairman and CEO of the Kraft Group, is an American entrepreneur, investor and philanthropist whose portfolio of businesses and brands range across many verticals, including paper and packaging, sports and entertainment, real estate and venture investing. His holdings include the New England Patriots, New England Revolution, Gillette Stadium, International Forest Products, Rand-Whitney Group, Rand-Whitney Containerboard and a portfolio of more than 100 venture and private-equity investments.

A lifelong football fan and 23-year New England Patriots season ticket holder before buying the team, Kraft became the chairman and CEO of the Patriots when he took ownership on Jan. 21, 1994. That day he pledged, "My objective in buying the Patriots is to help bring a championship to New England." That seemed to be a tall order considering the team's prior success rate. Now, 30 years later, the Patriots boast six Lombardi Trophies, 10 Super Bowl appearances and the highest winning percentage in all of professional sports.

In the five years prior to Kraft's ownership, the team had only won 19 of 80 games (23.8 winning percentage) with no playoff appearances. In fact, in the 34-year history of the franchise (1960-93), the Patriots had won just 229 games (including playoffs), averaging just 6.6 wins per season, and had qualified for the playoffs a mere six times.

The year Kraft bought the team (1994), the Patriots advanced to the playoffs for the first time in eight seasons. In his first five years of ownership, the Patriots won 49 games and qualified for the playoffs four times, even advancing to the Super Bowl in just his third season at the helm (1996). Over Kraft's 30 seasons (1994-2023), the Patriots won an unprecedented 353 games (including playoffs) for an average of 12 wins per season.

Playoff games offer another stark contrast. Prior to 1994, Patriots fans had only been treated to one home playoff game, which the Patriots lost to the Houston Oilers in 1978. Since 1994, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 22 times — 19 as division champions — and hosted 27 home playoff games, in which they own a 23-4 (.852) record.

The worst-to-first ascent of the New England Patriots since Kraft purchased the team may be the greatest in sports history. Under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots are second to Pittsburgh with just five seasons with a sub .500 record since 1994, they recorded at least nine wins in 24 of 30 seasons, and they won more division titles (19) and conference crowns (10) than any other NFL team. In 2018, the Patriots claimed their sixth Super Bowl championship during Kraft's tenure. No other team has more in NFL history.

INSTALLING HIS VISION

It didn't take long for Kraft's vision to come into focus. His personal investment in the team restored the faith of Patriots fans and rejuvenated interest throughout New England. The year he bought the team, season ticket sales soared to new heights, eclipsing 40,000 for the first time in franchise history. By the start of his first season, every game was sold out, a feat that had never been accomplished in the franchise's previous 34 seasons. That achievement ensured local broadcast blackouts would be lifted and every Patriots game, home and away, would be televised throughout New England for the first time in team history. Entering the 2024 season, the Patriots have sold out 314 consecutive home games, including all preseason and playoff games, dating back to the first regular season home game in 1994 (not including the COVID-19 2020 season).

Kraft and the Patriots organization have built a winning team in the community. Established in 1994, the New England Patriots Foundation was created to support charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout New England.

"MY OBJECTIVE IN BUYING THE PATRIOTS IS TO HELP BRING A CHAMPIONSHIP TO NEW ENGLAND."

— ROBERT KRAFT, JAN. 21, 1994

ASCENSION

The transformation of the Patriots under Kraft's leadership constitutes one of the greatest franchise revivals in sports history. After winning back-to-back Super Bowls and three titles in four years, Forbes magazine named the Patriots "The Best Team in Sports" in 2005.

In 2007, the New England Patriots won a then-franchise record fifth consecutive division title. They also became the first NFL team to win 16 games during the regular season and the only team to ever win 18 consecutive games in one season. The undefeated regular season boosted the team's regular season record from 2003-07 to 66-14 for a remarkable .825 winning percentage. The 66 regular season wins in that span are the most by any team over any five-year stretch in NFL history. Additionally, from Oct. 5, 2003, to Nov. 8, 2008, the Patriots won 81 games and lost only 19, matching the most successful 100-game stretch since the league was founded in 1920.

The Kraft-era Patriots also set three significant NFL records for consecutive wins. From 2003-04, the Patriots won 21 consecutive games, including playoffs. From 2006-08, the Patriots won 21 consecutive regular season games. Additionally, the Patriots established an NFL record by winning 10 consecutive playoff games (2001-05). During that time, the Patriots also won 21 consecutive games at Gillette Stadium, the longest home win streak in franchise history. The Patriots tied that home win streak after winning their 21st consecutive home game on Nov. 24, 2019.

The success the Patriots sustained during the first two decades of the new millennium is unrivaled. The Patriots 126 total victories (including playoffs) from 2000-09 were, at the time, the most by any team in one decade in the history of the NFL. The decade of dominance featured more Super Bowl titles (3), conference titles (4), division titles (7), playoff wins (14), victories in a single season (18) and victories in a regular season (16) than any other team. In addition, no other NFL team hosted more playoff games (9) or played in more playoff games (18) than the New England Patriots. The sustained success earned the franchise "Team of the Decade" acclaim from many publications. The ensuing decade was even more productive with 141 total victories, 10 division titles, five conference crowns, 23 playoff games and three Super Bowl wins.

GETTING HIS START

Kraft launched his career in the paper and packaging industry with Rand-Whitney Group, Inc., of Worcester, Massachusetts, a company he later acquired. Under his leadership, the Kraft Group's paper and packaging division has grown into one of the largest privately-owned and fully-integrated forest products companies in the world. The company consists of corrugated packaging facilities, paper mills, global paper and solid wood products distribution, and waste paper processing. International Forest Products, a global distributor

BEST IN SPORTS

After claiming their third Super Bowl in four years, Forbes named the New England Patriots as the best team in sports. The accompanying article recognized how Robert Kraft built the Patriots organization into a winner on and off the field.

A WINNING TRADITION

Robert Kraft's winning percentage with the Patriots (.664) since taking over the team in 1994 is the highest among all owners/ownership groups with at least 200 wins (regular and postseason). He is one of just four owners with at least 200 wins and a winning percentage over .600.

Joe Robbie	Dolphins	1966-89	.609
Pat Bowlen	Broncos	1984-2018	.596

THE KRAFT ERA

Prior to 1994, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs just six times during their first 34 seasons (1960-93). In the 30 seasons since Robert Kraft has owned the team, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 22 times, 19 times as division champions, and have won 10 conference titles and six Super Bowl championships.

300 WINS

Robert Kraft reached 300 career wins (including playoffs) on Sept. 30, 2018, in the Patriots 38-7 win vs. Miami. He reached 300 career wins in 432 career games, the fastest an owner has reached the milestone.

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft bought the team in 1994, the Patriots have become the most successful franchise in the NFL. For the past 30 seasons (1994-2023), the Patriots have won more Super Bowl Championships (6), more conference championships (10) and more division titles (19) than any other NFL team. In addition to championships, the Patriots have also won more, and more often, than any other NFL team, claiming 353 total victories and a .664 winning percentage, including 33 postseason wins.

and marketer founded by Kraft in 1972, annually does business in more than 120 countries, is the sixth-largest exporter in North America and has consistently been ranked among the top 10 in the annual rankings published by The Journal of Commerce. Within his companies, Kraft also built the first paper mill which produces product from 100% post-consumer fiber and waste water in the country. In doing so, he set a new industry standard for environmental responsibility, which he has modeled across his other businesses.

Throughout Kraft's professional career, many of his biggest risks have yielded the greatest rewards. That was true throughout his pursuit of Patriots ownership, beginning in 1985 when he first purchased an option on the land surrounding the old stadium in Foxborough, Massachusetts. It was a large investment for an underdeveloped parcel of land, but proved to be an important first step in a long process toward buying the Patriots. In 1988, he took another step by purchasing the stadium out of bankruptcy court. With a binding lease through 2001, the acquisition of the old stadium proved to be an invaluable asset in Kraft's quest toward owning the team.

When his opportunity came to buy the team in January of 1994, Kraft faced a difficult business dilemma. He had to decide between committing over $172 million of family resources to purchase the Patriots or accept a lucrative $75 million buyout offer to void the final years of the team's stadium lease and allow the team to move out of New England. On Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft passed on the buyout offer, choosing instead to make an 11th-hour bid to buy the team. On Feb. 26, 1994, a day after Kraft earned league approval, season tickets for the 1994 season went on sale and Patriots fans showed their support for Kraft's decision in record numbers. By the end of the first business day, amidst a winter Nor'easter, 5,958 season ticket orders were processed, shattering the previous single-day sales record of 979. The show of support validated Kraft's decision to buy the team and gave him the confidence to focus on another long-term project with great financial risk: the private financing and construction of Gillette Stadium.

In his first year of ownership, the Patriots won their final seven regular season games to qualify for the postseason, ending an eight-year playoff drought. By his fifth anniversary as owner, under the direction of two different head coaches, the Patriots had already established themselves as perennial playoff contenders, qualifying for the postseason four times, twice as division champions. In 1996, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years. After defeating Pittsburgh in the playoffs that year, the Patriots hosted their first conference championship game in franchise history and defeated Jacksonville, 20-6, to advance to Super Bowl XXXI.

BUILDING GILLETTE

From 2000-02, the Kraft Group's construction and real estate development team oversaw the on-time and on-budget construction of Gillette Stadium, a privately-financed facility and the only one of its kind to be financed without the burden of personal seat license fees charged to season ticket members. The financial commitment from Kraft provided a solid foundation on which to build for the first time in the franchise's nomadic history. Moving from Foxboro Stadium into the majestic Gillette Stadium marked another worst-to-first transformation for the Krafts, who now operate New England's premier entertainment venue. After opening Gillette Stadium, Kraft was recognized as the Sports Executive of the Year by a national publication and he and Jonathan Kraft were named Sports Industrialists of the Year by another.

The construction of Gillette Stadium was the Kraft Group development team's first project. In 2007, the Kraft Group expanded the development of the site with the construction of Patriot Place, a mixed-use lifestyle center and entertainment destination.

LOVE OF SPORTS

Kraft is widely recognized as one of the most successful owners in professional sports. His long-standing support of soccer in the United States dates back to his efforts in the early 1990s to secure Foxborough as one of the nine host venues for the 1994 FIFA World Cup and become one of three principal investors in Major League Soccer when he founded the New England Revolution in 1995. In 2017, Kraft was named Honorary Chairman of the Board of the United Bid Committee of Canada, Mexico and the United States and a key principal in securing the 2026 FIFA World Cup for North America.

As Chairman and CEO of the New England Patriots, Investor/Operator of the New England Revolution and owner of Gillette Stadium and Patriot Place, Kraft has turned the underdeveloped parcel of land he purchased in 1985 in Foxborough into a world-class sports and entertainment destination in New England.

PERSONAL

A native of Brookline, Massachusetts, Kraft attended public schools before enrolling at Columbia University on an academic scholarship. Following graduation, he received a fellowship to attend Harvard Business School, where he earned his master's degree in business administration.

A Patriots fan since their AFL days in the 1960s, Kraft attended games at each of the team's Boston venues: Boston University Field, Fenway Park, Boston College's Alumni Stadium and Harvard Stadium. When the Patriots moved to then Schaefer Stadium in 1971, Kraft invested in season tickets for his family. He credits the memories and experiences shared with his family and other Patriots fans during those years for his passionate pursuit for ownership of the franchise.

Robert Kraft and his family have consistently donated time, expertise and resources to a wide range of charities, nonprofits and causes, resulting in lifetime giving in excess of $900 million. He continues to support initiatives that provide equal access and opportunities, facilitate social and economic mobility and create social safety nets where they do not currently exist.

In 2019, Kraft was awarded the Genesis Prize, referred to as the "Jewish Nobel" by Time Magazine. As Genesis Prize laureate, Kraft announced a $25 million commitment

Kraft, his heart heavy, lifts NFL

Patriots owner helped bring accord during his wife's final days

By Greg A. Beards

The National Football League is back in action. And Patriots owner Robert Kraft is getting much of the credit.

Not only did Kraft help owners and players end a 134-day lockout and agree to a 134-day deal, but he did so while tending to his wife, Noreen, who died Wednesday of cancer.

The deal Kraft played in the end of yesterday's press conference was the deal. Not the war of the wills.

"It's special thanks to my wife, Kraft, who even in her weakest moment inspired me. Kraft to come and fight this out and win our fans, this deal does not get done," said Jeff Saturday, a representative of the NFL Players Association and a center for the Patriots' Super Bowl run, the Indianapolis Colts.

He added that Kraft is "a man who helped us save football and wrote an agreement for that. We're grateful for his family and for the opportunity he presented to get this deal done. So thank you very much — we really appreciate it."

Saturday and Kraft then embraced each other in the celebratory image of this often contentious negotiation.

Kraft was at the press conference at the invitation of NFL commissioner Roger Goodell and Players Association executive director DeMaurice Smith.

to establish the Foundation to Combat Antisemitism (FCAS). Since then, he has provided an additional $100 million to FCAS as the organization continues to grow. Kraft's vision for the foundation is to raise global awareness and encourage people everywhere to stand up to all forms of hate through powerful messaging and storytelling. In the spring of 2023, he launched a national multi-channel media campaign that focused on using empathy to motivate people to stand up to Jewish hate and all hate.

Kraft became a founding partner in creating the REFORM Alliance, a foundation focused on American criminal justice reform through changing laws, policies, hearts and minds to reduce the number of long-term incarcerations resulting from minor probation and parole violations. Kraft also was a founding donor to the New Commonwealth Racial Equity and Social Justice Fund and the Black Leadership Institute at the Institute for Nonprofit Practice and the Equity Leadership Initiative at the Rhode Island Foundation. He donated a million dollars to the National Museum of African American History and Culture and has donated millions more to a collection of organizations addressing racial inequity through the Kraft Family/Patriots Players Collaborative Fund. Over the past decade, the Kraft Family Foundation has donated more than $125 million to nonprofits which serve traditionally under-served communities.

The Kraft family believes that equity of access to quality education and healthcare are the cornerstones to vibrant and successful communities and has established more than three dozen permanent endowments at educational, healthcare and social service organizations. In addition, Kraft has donated more than $50 million to Mass General Brigham to address healthcare disparities caused by race, ethnicity, geography and economic status, including the establishment of the Robert K. Kraft Endowed Chair in Diversity, Equity and Inclusion and endowing the Kraft Center for Community Health, an initiative designed to develop solutions for the most difficult health problems. The Kraft Center services include Community Care in Reach, an innovative mobile health initiative which offers opioid addiction treatments, COVID-19 testing and vaccinations, as well as other health care services in under-served communities throughout Massachusetts. The Kraft family also committed $24 million to Harvard Business School to establish the Robert Kraft Family Fellowship, which will support promising young leaders from underserved backgrounds who would not be able to attend without significant financial aid.

The Kraft family supported many initiatives and donated more than $20 million to help those in need during the COVID-19 crisis. Those initiatives included the assistance in acquiring and distributing face masks to front-line workers in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and New York; supporting a meal distribution program that distributed over 6.5 million meals to military, veterans and their families; and hosting the first mass vaccination site in the northeast region and the largest vaccination distributor in the state, providing 610,283 vaccinations in less than five months.

In addition to serving on several NFL owner committees, Kraft also serves on the board of directors for the Apollo Theater, was a distinguished trustee for the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, where he established the Kraft Family Blood Donor Center, and is a member of the executive committee of the Massachusetts Competitive Partnership. He is also a former member of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, Apollo Global Management and The Engine, a venture firm founded by Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). Kraft is a trustee emeritus at Columbia University, a trustee of Boston College and has received honorary degrees from several colleges and Jonathan Kraft is the President of the Kraft Group which is comprised of companies in sports and entertainment, the paper and packaging industry, real estate, and private equity investing. He oversees the day-to-day operations of each company.

Kraft oversees the management and strategic planning of each department within the organization and represents the Patriots in all league matters.

Kraft serves on multiple NFL owner committees including Business Ventures, Legalized Sports Betting and Media Owned and Operated and he is the chairman of the Fan Engagement and Major Events Committee. He is also a member of the 32 Equity Committee.

When the Kraft family purchased the Patriots in 1994, Jonathan led the rebuilding and re-branding of the franchise, growing the fan base and bringing long-overdue stability to the once wayward organization.

In an era when stadium names are regularly changing, Gillette Stadium has remained a constant in New England. The venue was intentionally designed with open spaces and room to grow and evolve with its needs. It is now New England's premier entertainment venue. One of the most significant contributions to the organization's sustained success over the past two decades was securing financial approval for the construction of the stadium. Kraft developed the creative private-financing strategy for its $325 million construction. Many financial experts dismissed the viability of his plan, which relied on year-round club memberships for new clientele rather than the more conventional sale of personal seat licenses to existing season ticket holders. Kraft's unprecedented plan was considered a financial risk but proved to be universally successful. In addition to the business and financial accolades the Krafts received for the deal, Kraft and the project team also drew praise for innovative environmental practices in the construction of the stadium.

Throughout the stadium initiative, Kraft led the planning, construction, opening and ongoing operation and development of Gillette Stadium. He has been the creative force behind keeping the fan experience ahead of the ever-evolving sports and entertainment industry trends.

The Kraft family continually invests in the long-term infrastructure with improvements designed to perpetually enhance the fan experience without the sale of personal seat licenses. In the stadium's first 20 years, they committed more than $300 million in stadium enhancements with additions and renovations of dozens of concession areas, lounges, suites and fan gathering sections, including digital and technological upgrades and preeminent hospitality spaces to enhance the game day and event experience for all visitors. Most recently, in the largest investment to the stadium since it opened, Gillette Stadium underwent a $250 million improvement and renovation of the north end featuring a completely re-imagined entrance and front door to the stadium with a grand staircase leading onto the concourse, a new and enhanced 22-story lighthouse with a 360-degree observation deck, the largest outdoor curve-radius video board at a sports venue in the country, a renovated Row of Honor and new and improved concession locations, restrooms and other fan amenities, bringing the total investment in the stadium to over half a billion dollars.

Gillette Stadium has been the home of world-class events in New England for over 20 years under Kraft's direction. From the biggest names in live entertainment to international soccer, the NHL's Winter Classic, NCAA athletics, the Premier Lacrosse League and motor sports offerings, Gillette Stadium annually hosts the most diverse array of sports and entertainment events in the region, including the Army Navy Football Game in 2023 and the World Cup in 2026.

Following the construction of Gillette Stadium, Kraft oversaw the Kraft Group's real estate development team's design and construction of Patriot Place, a mixed-use entertainment destination surrounding Gillette Stadium, providing guests with a multitude of options, including dining, hospitality, specialty retail, lodging, world-class health care, night life and entertainment.

Prior to the Kraft family's ownership, the Patriots fan base was limited in range and scope. Kraft was committed to expanding the Patriots brand through innovative multimedia outreach. Under his directive, the Patriots became the first professional sports team to launch a web site in March of 1995 and the first to debut nightly video updates online. In 2004, the team showed their commitment to globalizing the Patriots brand when they launched the NFL's first Chinese-language version of their website. In 2021, the Patriots were awarded Germany as an official "home market" through the International Home Marketing Area (IHMA) initiative which has allowed the team to grow its fan base abroad and develop additional opportunities for marketing, fan engagement and business development including in-person and digital marketing opportunities, corporate sponsorships, and events in a new market. In 2023, the Patriots were awarded Austria and Switzerland as official "home markets," in addition to Germany. In April of 2024, the Patriots also added Brazil as a home market.

In addition to these ventures, after years of managing in-house operations for applying analytics to better understand customers and their buying behaviors, Kraft spun out the in-house technology and services to co-found the Kraft Analytics Group (KAGR) in 2016, a progressive technology and service company providing data management, advanced analytics and consulting services for sports and entertainment organizations.

In March of 2020, when the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic threatened to overwhelm hospitals in the northeast region, the Kraft family answered the call of former Massachusetts Governor Charlie Baker, who had acquired 1.8 million masks in China and sought assistance in expediting the delivery to New England medical professionals and frontline workers. The New England Patriots team plane was utilized to transport the critical PPE back to Boston. Throughout the global pandemic, Gillette Stadium hosted the region's first and largest COVID-19 testing site for frontline workers and the first large-scale vaccination site in the northeast region.

A graduate of Williams College, Kraft is a trustee emeritus and a member of the Williams College Investment Committee. He received his MBA from Harvard Business School, where he currently serves on the Dean's Board of Advisors. Kraft has served on the Board of Trustees of Massachusetts General Hospital since 2010 and was named chair in 2019. He is on the Board of Directors for TKO Group Holdings, Inc., which comprises UFC and WWE. He is also on the Board of Trustees for Belmont Hill School and Dexter Southfield. Additionally, Kraft is a member of the M.I.T. School of Engineering Dean's Advisory Council, a board member for Mass General Brigham and sits on the advisory board for the Billie Jean King Foundation.

DECADES OF DOMINANCE (2010-19)

The New England Patriots earned more wins (141) in the past decade (2010-19) than any other team in the NFL has over any 10-year span, with 125 regular season victories and 16 playoffs wins. They also own the highest winning percentage (.698) of any team in professional sports since 1994. The Patriots won a league-high three Super Bowls in the 2010s, increasing their total to six and tying the Pittsburgh Steelers for most all-time. The Patriots won more conference championships (5), appeared in more conference championship games (8) and won more division titles (10) than any other NFL team in a decade. This landmark decade comes on the heels of another dominant decade, as the Patriots also led the NFL in Super Bowl victories, conference championships, conference championship game appearances and division titles in the 2000s.

DECADES OF DOMINANCE (2000-09)

When Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that just 18 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s. The tallies listed below represent totals during the 2000-09 seasons.

HEAD COACH

6TH COACHING SEASON

COACHING

Jerod Mayo was introduced by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft as the 15th head coach in franchise history in a press conference held at Gillette Stadium on Jan. 17, 2024.

Said Mayo after being hired, "Becoming a Patriot has never felt like a job, rather a calling. I learned so much and feel taught by so many. I played alongside perhaps the best special teams player of all time and the best football player to ever play the game, and it doesn't stop there. I also played for the best coach to ever coach the game, and in my opinion the greatest human being to ever own a professional sports franchise."

Mayo was drafted by the Patriots in the first round (10th overall) of the 2008 draft out of Tennessee and spent his entire NFL career in New England before retiring following the 2015 season. Mayo played linebacker and appeared in 103 games during his career, racking up 905 total tackles. He was named captain for seven consecutive seasons (2009-15) and is a 2014 Super Bowl Champion. Mayo made the Pro Bowl after the 2010 and 2012 seasons after leading the league in tackles each season. In 2010, he earned Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors. He led the Patriots in total tackles in each of his first five seasons and became just the second Patriots player to win the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year award.

Mayo becomes the fourth person to be named head coach after playing for the previous coach (Bill Belichick) with the same team since the 1970 merger. The others are Mike Tice of Minnesota (under Dennis Green), Jack Pardee of Washington (under George Allen) and Bart Starr of Green Bay (under Dan Devine).

"Being a Patriots player was always to me bigger than football, and when I retired as a player, it was bittersweet," said Mayo. "At the end of my career, I endured some injuries and I knew that retiring as a player was not the end of my road in football or with the Patriots. I took some time away

VIDEO FEATURE

Take a look at how Jerod Mayo developed his leadership skills in this video feature.

"I think for one, the way he came in, Defensive Rookie of the Year. Mr. Kraft talked about it. RKK said it. You're a captain in your second year. That spoke about not only his leadership, but I think also how he got along with everybody on the team. I think of a guy who can stand in front of a room, and no matter what they say, the men in the room walk away saying, I'll follow that guy."

— DEVIN MCCOURTY, FORMER PATRIOTS SAFETY

from football to both spend more time with my family and work on both business and life skills."

Following his retirement, Mayo served as an executive in finance at Optum as Senior Vice President of Business Development before returning to the Patriots to start his coaching career as inside linebackers coach in 2019. While at Optum from 2016 through 2019, Mayo took the skills and understanding that he mastered in football and transformed himself into a business executive. While at Optum, he worked on consumer solutions with clients and consulted on mergers and acquisitions.

In 2019, Mayo returned to the Patriots when he joined Bill Belichick's staff as the inside linebackers coach. In his five seasons with the Patriots, the defense finished in the top-10 in total defense four times.

Under Mayo's tutelage in his first coaching season, LB Dont'a Hightower earned his second career Pro Bowl nod and the defense finished No. 1 in the NFL in total defense (275.9 yards per game) and scoring (14.1 points allowed per game). Without a defensive coordinator by title in the past five seasons, Mayo's role and responsibilities grew each year. Last season, the defense ranked seventh overall in yards allowed.

"The time came in 2019 to begin the process to attend to unfinished business and new mountains to climb with the Patriots," said Mayo when joining on the coaching staff.

“He’s just somebody people gravitate towards. He not only leads by example, he also has the vocal aspect of it, too. Mayo has a great message and does a great job of delivering that message.”

— DONTA HIGHTOWER, PATRIOTS LINEBACKER

In 2022, the Patriots defense finished the season ranked 8th in yards allowed and tied for second with San Francisco with 30 total takeaways. LB Matthew Judon tallied career highs in sack totals in back-to-back seasons, recording 12½ sacks in 2021 and 15½ in 2022. The 15½ sacks rank third in team history and for a franchise record 102.5 sack yards. Judon earned his fourth straight Pro Bowl invitation and second straight with the Patriots. He also earned PFWA-All-AFC Player honors and was named the Week 5 AFC Defensive Player of the Week.

Joshua Uche also recorded career highs in 2022, finishing with 11½ sacks for 49.5 yards. He had six sacks in a three-game span, second most in team history. Uche earned AFC Player of the Week honors in Week 14 after his three-sack performance against Arizona. In 2023, the Patriots defense finished ranked seventh in total defense. The Patriots allowed just 3.3 yards per rush, the lowest in the NFL in 2023 and the lowest in team history since the 1970 merger. The previous low was 3.4 yards per rush by the 1974 team.

Said Mayo on his coaching style, “I would say I’m a huge believer in just developing people, whether it’s on the football field, whether it’s off the football field, in the media world, in business. My calling is to be a teacher and to develop people and help them see pretty much what they don’t want to see but they need to see - that is my calling.”

COLLEGE

Mayo spent four seasons at Tennessee, starting in 26 of 32 games and recorded 236 total tackles, 6½ sacks and an interception that he returned 34 yards for a touchdown. He served as a co-captain as a senior in 2007 and was an All-American second-team choice and consensus All-Southeastern Conference first-team selection.

FAMILY’S BACKGROUND

Jerod Mayo was born Feb. 23, 1986, in Hampton, Va. His brother, Deron, joined the Patriots organization in 2018 as a strength & conditioning assistant coach. Jerod and his wife, Chantel, have three daughters, Chya, Chyanne and Chylo, and a son, Jerod Jr.

Mayo credits his grandfather, Walter Johnson, for helping give him the discipline to reach success.

“While we didn’t have a father for a short period of time in our lives, my grandfather kind of filled that role,” said Mayo. “He was a Chief Master Sergeant in the Air Force and comes from a military background. He always used to talk about working hard and discipline. It’s easy to be motivated. I feel like motivation in itself is fleeting. As soon as you get hit in the mouth or as soon as you run into some adversity, what do you fall back on? That is discipline.”

ROOT OF ALL VALUES

Mayo learned his values and leadership style through the people he met in both football and business.

“People that influenced my coaching style – we’ll start with Bill [Belichick], probably the greatest to ever do it,” said Mayo. “I learned a lot from him. He’s a teacher first and foremost. My manager at Optum, Mike Mateo, learning how to deal with people, different groups of people. Also, my mom – she worked very hard, and my grandfather. Like I said, in the military, discipline, I learned a lot from him as well. Tedy Bruschi, we played the same position. He protected me.

The best leaders that I have been around have been able to command a room and get a group of people going after a common goal."

Bruschi saw Mayo develop the skills that helped shape Mayo into a leader.

"The ability to communicate with anyone and make them feel like you are on an equal level, and he can speak on a level that is educated and that is personable," said Bruschi. "When you have those two things, you get people listening to you. They listen to what you say, and it's easier for you to convey what you need from them, or what you want from them on the field, and that is something that I think he is exceptional at."

Kicker Graham Gano furthered his franchise record with 37 consecutive successful field goal attempts, converting 29 of 33 attempts. In 2020, Gano made 31 of 32 field goal attempts. His 96.9 percentage was the second highest in Giants history behind his predecessor, Aldrick Rosas, who made 97.0 percent (32 of 33) in 2018.

Under Quinn's guidance, Aldrick Rosas earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2018 after converting 32 of 33 field goal attempts and 31 of 32 extra point tries in the season. From 2018 through 2021, Giants punter Riley Dixon averaged 45.2 yards per punt, ranking second in Giants history behind Steve Weatherford (46.3). Dixon's career 40.6-yard net punting average set the franchise record (since 1976).

In 2015, Josh Brown played in his first Pro Bowl. In 2014, the Giants' kickoff coverage team ranked second in the NFL, limiting opponents to an average return of merely 18.3 yards. Additionally, the Giants led the NFL with five special teams takeaways. In 2011, Quinn's special teams unit helped lead the Giants to a Super Bowl victory over the Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI.

In 2010, Zak DeOssie, serving as the snapper for both punts and placekicks, secured his second Pro Bowl selection in three seasons in 2010. The Giants' kickoff coverage unit ranked fourth in the NFL, with opponents averaging only 19.7 yards per return.

In 2008, three of the Giants' special teams players—kicker John Carney, punter Jeff Feagles and DeOssie—played for the NFC Pro Bowl team. Quinn began his NFL coaching career in 2006 as the assistant special teams coach and was subsequently promoted to special teams coordinator in 2007. In his first season as special teams coordinator, the Giants defeated the Patriots, 17-14, in Super Bowl XLII.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

15TH COACHING SEASON
15TH NFL SEASON
1ST PATRIOTS SEASON

COACHING

Drew Wilkins joins New England in 2024 as outside linebackers coach after spending the last two seasons coaching outside linebackers with the New York Giants.

In his two seasons with the Giants, Wilkins coached a unit that included OLB Kayvon Thibodeaux, the fifth overall selection in the 2022 NFL Draft. Thibodeaux finished the 2023 season leading the team and recording a career high of 11 ½ sacks, tied for 12th most in the league. Jihad Ward, who had previously played for Wilkins in Baltimore, recorded a career-high of 5 sacks in 2023.

In Wilkins debut season with the team in 2022, Thibodeaux was selected to the All-Rookie Team by the PFWA and was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his dominant performance on Dec. 18 in Washington, where he recorded a team-high 12 tackles (9 solo), 3 tackles for loss, and a strip-sack of Taylor Heinicke, whose fumble he recovered and returned one yard for his first NFL touchdown. Thibodeaux also recorded a game-sealing strip-sack in the Giants' Oct. 16 victory over the Baltimore Ravens. After missing the first two games due to injury, Thibodeaux continually improved as the season progressed and was named a Pro Bowl alternate.

Despite being limited to only seven regular season games, second-year pro Azeez Ojulari finished second on the team with 5½ sacks and led the team with three forced fumbles. Ward recorded career-highs of 43 tackles and seven tackles for loss (tied for team-lead).

The 2022 Giants ranked fifth in the NFL in third-down defense, as their opponents converted just 35.1% of their opportunities. The Giants also ranked fifth in the NFL in red-zone defensive efficiency in 2022. The Giants allowed 45 fewer points and recorded seven more sacks than they had the previous season, a major reason their victory total increased by five games, and they earned their first playoff berth since 2016 and won their first playoff game since 2011.

Prior to joining the Giants, Wilkins spent 12 seasons with the Baltimore Ravens, the last 10 working with former Giants defensive coordinator Wink Martindale, including the last four coaching the outside linebackers. That tenure included a Ravens victory in Super Bowl XLVII.

In 2021, the Ravens' defense led the NFL against the run, allowing 84.5 yards a game. Baltimore was third in the league in third down defense, allowing a conversion percentage of just 34.8 (70 of 201). Wilkins mentored rookie outside linebacker Odafe Oweh, who was selected to the All-Rookie Team by the PFWA.

The previous season, the Ravens allowed the NFL's second-fewest points per game (18.9), produced the No. 2 third-down defense (34.0%), and registered an NFL-high 25 forced fumbles. The 2019 Ravens produced a franchise-best 14-2 record, winning a second straight AFC North title. Baltimore allowed the NFL's third-fewest points (17.6) and fourth-fewest net yards (300.6) per game.

Outside linebacker Matthew Judon who was selected to two Pro Bowls (2019, 2020) during his tenure with Wilkins in Baltimore.

Wilkins debuted as Baltimore's outside linebackers coach in 2018, when the Ravens had the league's top-ranked defense, allowing 292.9 yards per game. Baltimore also permitted the league's second-fewest points per game (17.9 a game). Wilkins coached outside linebacker Terrell Suggs, who registered 139.0 career sacks (8th in NFL history) and was selected to seven Pro Bowls.

In 2017, Wilkins worked with a defensive unit that led the league in both takeaways (34) and interceptions (22).

During Wilkins' three seasons (2014-16) as a defensive assistant, he was responsible for the weekly production of the defensive playbook, scouting reports, film breakdown and assisting with the development of the defensive line in practice.

Wilkins joined the organization in 2010 as a football video operations intern before becoming a video coordinator in 2012, when the Ravens won the Super Bowl.

Bryce Baringer had an unconventional path to the NFL. He began his collegiate career by earning a walk-on spot at Illinois in 2018 as a true freshman, but due to being buried on the depth chart and the cost of out-of-state tuition, he transferred home to Michigan State as a regular student. Outside of a four-game stint on the Michigan State team due to injuries on the roster, Baringer did not have a walk-on spot available to him in 2019. After a year serving as the team's photographer to maintain access to the facilities to train, Baringer attended an open tryout with a new coaching staff at the Spartans and made the team, establishing himself as the Spartans top punter in 2020 and going on to have record-breaking seasons in 2021 and 2022. In 2022, he was named the Big 10 Punter of the Year and a consensus All-American by all five major associations.

ROOKIE IN THE RECORD BOOK

However, he was no stranger to volunteerism; growing up, he would volunteer in the community at a local soup kitchen and became a change agent at a young age. He knew that when he became a professional football player, he would then have the vehicle and platform to give back on a larger scale.

EXTRA POINTS

His aunt originally began calling him John-John but quickly switched it to JuJu, which permanently stuck. When he was just eight years old, Smith-Schuster changed his name in football program listings in 2012 from "John" to "JuJu." When he was 18 he legally changed his last name from "Smith" to "Smith-Schuster" as a tribute to his stepfather who helped raise him. He told the Los Angeles Times the last name change just felt like the right thing for him to do.
- Smith-Schuster grew up playing in the Snoop Youth Football League, founded by famous rapper Snoop Dogg. Snoop Dogg served as a coach in the league and even coined the nickname "SportsCenter" for Smith-Schuster.

Follow Rhamondre Stevenson's journey to the NFL from not being eligible for a NCAA scholarship due to grades, to working at Walmart, to JUCO, then to being an honor roll student and standout running back at Oklahoma, to being drafted by the Patriots in the fourth round of the 2021 Draft.

EXTRA POINTS

- While in high school, RB Rhamondre Stevenson started gaining attention for the impressive stats he posted as a junior. Unfortunately, due to his grades, Stevenson was academically ineligible to receive a football scholarship despite being recruited. Following his senior year of high school, Stevenson took a year off from football working part-time jobs at Wal-Mart and Jimmy John's. But after a year away, he decided to follow a group of his friends and enroll in Cerritos Community College. During his time at Cerritos, he shared a two-bedroom apartment with up to six other guys at times and rode his bicycle 20 minutes to and from practice every day. After putting up monster stats in his second season at Cerritos, he committed to Oklahoma. Oklahoma led him to the 2021 NFL Draft where in the fourth round on the third day the Patriots selected Stevenson. In addition he worked on his academics and made the Dean's List while at Oklahoma.

EXTRA POINTS

- Cole Strange is the first Patriots player to be drafted from Chattanooga since RB Mario Grier in 1996 in the sixth round. Grier played in 32 games for New England from 1996 through 1997.
- He is also the highest drafted player from Chattanooga, overtaking WR Terrell Owens, who was the 89th pick overall in the third round of the 1996 draft by San Francisco.
- Strange started wearing the vertical bar facemask his senior season at Chattanooga. The idea started when the veteran offensive line group, who had been together for four years, wanted to do something different to finish out their final season playing alongside each other. So they decided to all wear the same facemask and landed on the vertical bar. Strange brought the bar with him to the NFL and is one of only three NFL regulars to sport the vertical bar in their facemask.

HISTORY OF THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME

The Patriots Hall of Fame was established in 1991 as a way to honor the greatest players in franchise history. A selection committee of media and staff was formed to select players for induction and appropriately, John Hannah was the first player enshrined. Eight additional players were inducted from 1992-95. Andre Tippett (1999) and Bruce Armstrong (2001) rounded out the Patriots Hall of Fame's first 11 members. In 2007, the Patriots introduced a new method of selecting players for the team's hall of fame in advance of the opening of The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by RTX. Moving forward, one player will be enshrined in the Patriots Hall of Fame each year, with a nomination committee determining three finalists each spring and fans voting for the final choice through Patriots.com each spring.

SENIOR SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Patriots formed a senior selection committee to ensure that early era players are not overlooked in the voting process. The committee consists of veteran media and staff members who gather to discuss candidates who have been retired for at least 25 years to identify the player most deserving of Patriots Hall of Fame recognition.

Gil Santos • Radio Broadcaster

Patriots Hall of Fame 2013

During a pregame ceremony to honor Gil Santos and Gino Cappelletti prior to the 2012 regular season finale, Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft announced that Santos, the legendary Voice of the New England Patriots, would be a 2013 inductee into the Patriots Hall of Fame ... Santos, who valiantly overcame life-threatening health complications early in 2012 to return to the broadcast booth, announced his intention to retire after the 2012 season ... For 36 seasons, spanning five decades, he earned the moniker "Voice of the New England Patriots." ... In 36 seasons, he missed just one game, a preseason game in 1971 ... Santos called the action for 745 career Patriots games ... Santos began calling games for the Boston Patriots at Fenway Park in 1966 ... For the first five seasons, he provided color analysis alongside veteran play-by-play man Bob Starr ... When the team moved to Foxborough in 1971, Santos moved into his role as play-by-play voice of the Patriots (1971-79) ... WBZ lost the Patriots radio rights in the 1980s, but got them back in 1991 and returned Santos to his natural position as Voice of the New England Patriots, a position he held for 22 seasons.

Patriots Hall of Fame 2021

Tracy Sormanti, the team's longtime cheerleading director, passed away on Friday, Dec. 4, 2020 after a three-year battle with multiple myeloma ... Sormanti, just 58 years old, was in her 32nd season of service with the Patriots organization ... Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft announced her induction in the summer of 2021 ... Kraft said, "Tracy Sormanti was one of my first hires after I bought the team, and after nearly three decades, I can confidently say that there was no one more dedicated to her job or caring and compassionate about those she coached. Like all great coaches, she was meticulous in her preparation and brought the best out of her squads." ... Sormanti, a Rhode Island native, first joined the organization in 1983 as a Patriots cheerleader ... She was a member of the Patriots cheerleading squad from 1983-84 and again from 1991-93, concluding her cheerleading career by representing the Patriots at the 1993 Pro Bowl. Shortly after Kraft bought the team in 1994, he named Sormanti the cheerleading director ... Over 27 seasons, Sormanti's squads performed at 10 Super Bowls, visited more than 30 countries and two dozen foreign operating bases on military tours, and made thousands of community appearances.

William H. "Billy" Sullivan Jr. • Founder

Patriots Hall of Fame 2009

On the occasion of the Patriots 50th anniversary season in 2009, one of Robert Kraft's first announcements was the induction of the team's founder, William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr., into the team's Hall of Fame. Sullivan became the first non-player to be inducted into The Hall. On Nov. 16, 1959, William H. Sullivan, Jr. was awarded the eighth and final charter franchise of the American Football League ... Sullivan, with nine other investors, sold non-voting public stock in the franchise to raise capital to help post the franchise fee of $25,000 ... In 1975, Sullivan purchased additional stock to become majority owner, and in 1976, he purchased all the remaining non-voting stock in the team ... In 1983, Schaefer Stadium was renamed Sullivan Stadium to honor Sullivan's contributions to the franchise ... Sullivan owned the Patriots through 1988, when he sold the franchise to Victor Kiam.

98.5 THE SPORTS HUB PATRIOTS RADIO NETWORK

Bob Socci

BOSTON'S HOME FOR SPORTS

Scott Zolak

Eleven seasons, three Super Bowl championships: it's been a great ride for Bob Socci as the radio voice of the Patriots. Socci returns for his 12th season in the booth as play-by-play broadcaster on 98.5 The Sports Hub and its 33-station network. He has won rave reviews for his enthusiasm and accuracy since taking the helm for the 2013 campaign. Before joining the Patriots, Bob served as the voice of the Naval Academy Midshipmen for 16 seasons, and called Triple A baseball, most recently for the Pawtucket Red Sox, for a decade.

Socci is joined in the booth by former Patriots quarterback Scott Zolak, who is entering his 12th season as action analyst. Prior to moving upstairs, he spent a season with the legendary broadcast team of Gil Santos and Gino Cappelletti as a sideline reporter. Prior to that, he served six seasons as a co-host of "Patriots Preview" and "Patriots Postgame" on the Radio Network. He's currently heard daily as co-host of the "Zolak and Bertrand" Show on the Sports Hub, where his experience as a pro athlete and his boundless energy keep Boston listeners engaged and entertained all year long.

The gameday experience on the network starts three hours before kickoff with "Patriots Preview," with hosts Marc Bertrand, Jim Murray and Christopher Gasper. The co-host of the Sports Hub's midday show, Bertrand is in his 10th season with the Network's pregame show. He previously helmed the "Patriots Pregame Social" on Patriots.com for two seasons. A UMass grad, he won Associated Press awards for both his play-by-play and talk shows covering the Minutemen. Bertrand is also a frequent contributor to NBC Sports Boston. Murray is a native of Melrose, Massachusetts and can be heard each weekday afternoon on the highly rated "Felger and Massarotti" show. Gasper is back for his 17th season on "Patriots Preview." The Lynn, Massachusetts native is a sports columnist for The Boston Globe. Gasper and Murray also co-host the Saturday morning "Gasper & Murray" show on the Sports Hub.

The men in charge of the "Patriots Postgame" are Joe Murray and Leroy Irvin. Greg Bedard of the Boston Sports Journal will also contribute. Murray has been an on-air host at 98.5 The Sports Hub since 2011. He enters his third season co-hosting the "Patriots Postgame." The Hyde Park native is a 17-year veteran of the sports radio industry. Irvin has been co-hosting on the Sports Hub in various day parts since 2018. He's also part of the "Get Up Crew" heard each weekday morning on Beasley Media Boston's sister station HOT 96.9 FM. A native of Dorchester, Leroy was also the founder and host of the Play Action Sports podcast.

The football season never ends on the Patriots flagship station, 98.5 The Sports Hub. From morning-after breakdowns with "Toucher and Hardy," X's and O's with "Zolak and Bertrand," to no-holds-barred opinions from "Felger and Massarotti," the Patriots are always front and center. Mike Reiss, Phil Perry, Bert Breer and Paul Perillo also contribute and can be heard weekdays. One of the first sports franchises to broadcast their games on FM, the Patriots begin their 30th season of airing every block, tackle and kick in crystal-clear stereo. The Patriots are entering their 16th season on The Sports Hub, where you'll also find the broadcasts of the New England Revolution, Boston Bruins and Boston Celtics.

PATRIOTS FOUNDATION

CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM

Robert Kraft established the New England Patriots Foundation in 1994 as a way to give back to the communities the Patriots call home. The mission of the foundation is to aid individuals and families that are often marginalized in today's society. Through the implementation of year-round programming and support of philanthropic agencies, the foundation is building stronger communities throughout New England.

With the incredible support of current and former Patriots players and coaches, the Patriots Foundation has grown continued to expand its reach and scope each year, helping to meet the needs of the region's most vulnerable populations. Over the years, the foundation has provided support to thousands of local nonprofits with initiatives that focus on the core pillars of education, female empowerment, healthcare, homelessness, military, volunteerism and youth football. While the foundation supports a number of different causes, there is one common theme – addressing the most pressing needs of our New England communities.

Thanks to the support of our five cornerstone partners — Bank of America, Cross Insurance, CVS Health, Dellbrook|JKS and Gillette — the Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation will expand upon our efforts, positively impacting more New Englanders throughout the year. To learn more about the community efforts of the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation, please visit www.patriots.com/community. ### Ron Burton Community Service Award

The Ron Burton Community Service Award is named in honor of the late Ron Burton, the first player drafted by the team in the inaugural year of 1960 and a community leader whose widespread charitable work was a model for how a Patriots player can make an impact off the field. This award is presented annually to one Patriots player that goes above and beyond to give back to the community. Jonathan Jones was celebrated as the 21st recipient of the award during the 2023 Patriots Premiere.

COMMUNITY CAPTAINS

Presented by:
BANK OF AMERICA

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation are excited to partner with Bank of America to continue the “Community Captains” program. This charitable initiative was created in 2021 to build deeper relationships with nonprofits and strengthen the impact on the populations they serve. During this two year partnership, the Patriots Foundation and Bank of America worked closely with six nonprofit organizations, with a goal of establishing a deeper understanding of their community efforts and to help each charity serve their constituents more effectively.

In 2023, six new nonprofit organizations were selected as the 2023-2025 Community Captains. The Kraft family, New England Patriots Foundation and Bank of America are conducting site visits at all six nonprofit organizations as an opportunity to learn more about each organization, hear from their staff and volunteers and see how the Patriots and Bank of America can support their efforts. A total of $300,000 in grants will be presented to the nonprofits - $50,000 per organization – to support their areas of greatest need.

In addition to financial support, each of the nonprofits receive in-kind donations, participate in networking opportunities with staff from the Patriots and Bank of America, enjoy access to Bank of America’s Better Money Habits program, and much more. The six Community Captains include Blue Star Families (Mass.); Bridge Over Troubled Waters (Boston, Mass.); Friends of the Children (Roxbury, Mass.); My Brothers Table (Lynn, Mass.); New England Center and Homes for Veterans (Boston, Mass.) and Rhode Island Free Clinic (Providence, R.I.).

EXTRA POINTS

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots have a longstanding commitment to supporting active duty military, veterans and their families. As part of the year-round Salute to Service initiative, the Kraft family and Patriots Foundation are committed to celebrating those who dedicate their lives to protecting our freedoms. Our partners at Cross Insurance share the same commitment to military, veterans and their families. Together, we celebrate and honor the true Patriots for their selfless dedication to our country.

Month of the Military Child

April is designated as the “Month of the Military Child,” providing an opportunity to recognize and thank the children of our service members and veterans. To commemorate this special occasion, the Patriots Foundation— with the support of Cross Insurance – brought ‘Football For You’ to Joint Base Cape Cod. Current and former Patriots players led a free football clinic for military children. The foundation and Cross Insurance also hosted “Patriots Gamers” at Helix eSports at Patriot Place. Current Patriots players played in a video game tournament with children of service members.

Tragedy Assistance Programs for Survivors (TAPS)

For the past seven years, the Kraft family and the Patriots have teamed with Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) to recognize military families whose loved ones paid the ultimate sacrifice. Each year, the Patriots Salute to Service game is dedicated to their loved ones. Players wore decal stickers on the back of their helmets with the initials of a former military member who lost his or her life in service to our country. Patriots coaches also wore buttons with the names and photos of fallen servicemen and women. Prior to the game, the Kraft family hosted a special ceremony, thanked the families and loved ones for their sacrifice and shared special messages from the players.

Vietnam Veterans Pinning Ceremony

Each year, the Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation invite Vietnam veterans for a special pinning ceremony at Gillette Stadium. The United States of America Vietnam War Commemoration established the Commemorative Partner Program, an initiative to thank and honor Vietnam veterans and their families. The Patriots have joined them in their efforts to pay tribute to those who served. In celebration of Vietnam War Veterans Day in March, Josh Kraft and Jonathan Cross of Cross Insurance presented Vietnam veteran lapel pins to men and women to recognize, thank and honor them for their service during the Vietnam War. Robert Kraft was in attendance to rededicate the Row of Honor and the POW/ MIA seat which were upgraded in 2023.

VOLUNTEERISM

In 2011, the Patriots Foundation established the Celebrate Volunteerism initiative as a way to share examples of dedicated volunteers, build awareness of the need for volunteering, identify and educate others about volunteer opportunities and inspire New Englanders to follow the Kraft family's example of becoming lifelong volunteers. We are excited to partner with our good friends at Gillette to inspire the next generation of volunteers and to celebrate individuals for their dedication and service to our New England communities.

Myra Kraft Community MVP Awards

The late Myra Kraft established the Community Quarterbacks Award in 1998 to recognize outstanding community volunteers and to present grants to their respective charities. In 2011, the Kraft family and Patriots Foundation announced the renaming of the award to the Myra Kraft Community MVP Award, in honor of Myra's life-long commitment to volunteering. Each year, Myra Kraft Community MVP Award winners are recognized for their leadership, dedication and a commitment to bettering their communities during a luncheon at Gillette Stadium.

Since its inception, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation have recognized more than 500 volunteers and presented more than $3.75 million in grants to the charities for which they volunteer.

Patriots Difference Maker of the Week Award

Each week during the NFL season, a volunteer is celebrated for going above and beyond to give back to their local community with the Patriots Difference Maker of the Week Award. The honorees are celebrated in weekly press releases and are invited to a special year-end celebration at Gillette Stadium. Since the awards inception, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation have recognized 200 volunteers and donated more than $990,000 in support of their nonprofit organizations.

HOMELESSNESS

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation are dedicated to supporting initiatives that provide clothing, food, gifts and other essential items to children and families in need. Since the foundation's inception, the Kraft family has remained steadfast in their commitment to provide essential items to families in need, partnering with hundreds of local charitable organizations that provide healthy meals and unwavering support to the most vulnerable populations in our region. With the support of Dellbrook|JKS, we are able to provide essential services to those experiencing homelessness.

Empowerment Coats

Since 2014, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation have purchased thousands of Empowerment coats. The weather resistant coats transform into sleeping bags and can be worn as an over-the-shoulder bag. Current and former Patriots players, Patriots cheerleaders and Pat Patriot have distributed the coats to homeless shelters across the region and in Germany. The coats were designed by the Empowerment Plan, a Detroit-based nonprofit that distributes the specially designed winter gear to individuals living on the streets. The nonprofit is working to break the cycle of homelessness by employing parents from shelters to manufacture these coats. Every single person that has been employed by the Empowerment Plan has moved out of the shelter within the first four-to-six weeks of working there. More importantly, none of them have returned to homelessness.

FEMALE EMPOWERMENT

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation have a long history of supporting initiatives designed to empower and encourage women in the sports industry. The goal of our women's empowerment initiatives is to support girls and women in all industries by providing resources for success. We look forward to building upon these efforts with our partners at CVS Health and appreciate their shared commitment to celebrating and empowering women and girls.

Women and Girls in Sports Clinic

The New England Patriots Foundation and the New England Revolution Foundation partnered to host a women and girls in sports clinic for 50 local youth. The event featured a joint football and soccer clinic with the 5x WFA Pro National Champion Boston Renegades and the New England Revolution, followed by a panel featuring women in the sports industry.

Professional Development

To celebrate Women's History Month, the New England Patriots Foundation hosted a career development workshop on the campus of Roxbury Community College. In partnership with CVS Health, the event offered students an opportunity to get their headshot taken, learn about resume building, participate in roundtables and more. To help further support students at Roxbury Community College, CVS Health made an in-kind donation that was presented to the Rox Box, the College's food pantry, during the event.

HOLIDAY GIVING

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation are dedicated to providing year-round support to children and families in need but understand that the holidays and winter months can be a particularly challenging time of the year. For 30 years, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation have hosted a series of events to bring smiles and lifelong memories to children and families across New England.

Thanksgiving-In-A-Basket

For 30 years, the Kraft family has been joined by current and former Patriots players and their families to supply complete Thanksgiving meals to hundreds of families in need at the Thanksgiving-in-a-Basket event at Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries in Boston. All recipients are individuals who are currently enrolled in Goodwill's job training and youth programs. The current and former Patriots players personally carry the baskets to the cars of each family and ensure that every family receives a complete Thanksgiving meal.

Children's Holiday Party

The annual Children's Holiday Party is one of the Kraft family's longstanding charitable traditions through the Patriots Foundation, with the 30th annual event being held in 2023. Each year, 250 children in need from the Salvation Army and community centers throughout the region are hosted by the Kraft family for a night of food, fun and great holiday memories. Patriots players, cheerleaders and Pat Patriot join the children to play holiday-themed games, sign autographs and offer gifts from the Patriots Foundation.

Gifts from the Gridiron

Since 2010, the foundation has partnered with Bass Pro Shops at Patriot Place to host a holiday shopping event for children from local homeless shelters. During this holiday event, youth are provided $400 gift cards to purchase winter clothing, toys and gifts for loved ones. Each child pairs up with a current or former Patriots player, cheerleader or member of the Patriots Women's Association who help the children to select and wrap their gifts. The evening also features dinner, photos with Santa in Bass Pro Shop's Santa's Wonderland, crafts, games, music and more. With the support of Patriots players, hundreds of children have enjoyed this unforgettable holiday shopping experience.

JOIN OUR TEAM

The Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation would not be able to support as many children, individuals and families in need without the generous contributions from our fans. Throughout the year, sponsors, premium seating clients, season ticket members and avid Patriots fans across the globe support fundraising events and initiatives for the Patriots Foundation.
